SUPERVISORY CONTROLS: The Code Enforcement Officer provides continuing or individual assignments by indicating generally what needs to be done, limitations, quantity and quality expected, deadlines and priority of assignments. The supervisor provides additional, specific instructions for new, difficult or unusual assignments including suggested work methods or advice on source material available. The employee uses initiative in carrying out recurring assignments independently without specific instruction in accordance with Town policies and procedures, exercising a degree of judgment and tact, but refers deviations, problems and unfamiliar situations not covered by instructions to the supervisor for decision or help. The supervisor assures that finished work and methods used are technically accurate and in compliance with instructions or established procedures. Review of the work increases with more difficult assignments if the employee has not previously performed similar assignments.

GUIDELINES: Guidelines include NH Statutes and Town ordinances, policies and procedures. These guidelines are generally clear and specific but may require some interpretation in application. The number and similarity of guidelines and work situations requires the employee to use judgment in locating and selecting the most appropriate guidelines, references and procedures for application and in making minor Secretary - Clerk deviations to adapt the guidelines in specific cases. At this level, the employee may also determine which of the several established alternatives to use. Situations to which the existing guidelines cannot be applied or with significant proposed deviations from the guidelines are referred to the supervisor.

COMPLEXITY: The work consists of duties that involve related steps, processes, or methods. The decision regarding what needs to be done involves various choices requiring the employee to recognize the existence of, and differences among, a few easily recognizable situations.

SCOPE AND EFFECT: The work involves the execution of specific rules, regulations or procedures and typically comprises a complete segment of an assignment or project of broader scope. The work product or service affects the accuracy, reliability or acceptability of further processes or services.

PERSONAL CONTACTS: The personal contacts are with employees within the immediate organization, office, project or work unit and in related or support units. The contacts are with members of the general public in very highly structured situations, i.e., the purpose of the contact and the question of with whom to deal are relatively clear.

PURPOSE OF CONTACTS: The purpose is to obtain, clarify or give facts or information regardless of the nature of those facts, i.e., the facts or information may range from easily understood to highly technical.

PHYSICAL DEMANDS: The physical demands described here are representative of those that must be met by an employee to successfully perform the essential functions of this job. Reasonable accommodations may be made to enable individuals with disabilities to perform the essential functions.

While performing the duties of this job, the employee is frequently required to stand; walk; sit; use hands to finger, handle, or feel; reach with hands and arms, speak, see and hear. Employee must occasionally lift/move up to 25 pounds.
